Hang in there non-Book of Mormon readers or believers, as we will give you exclusive, undeniable evidences of its truthfulness which will change your understanding of the purpose of life.

#8 Reading the Book of Mormon for the first time, again.

Read it now with an understanding that it was not brought forth in the days of the Gentiles to establish a religious economic worldwide empire. That unlike in God's church pointed out in the Book of Mormon, where all are equal in God's eyes, leaders are held to be more righteous than their followers and have become popular throughout the world. Men of flesh who need not work with their hands for their subsistence, as they are financially supported by their followers. A religion is described somewhat like this in the first part of Alma. Also Nephi warns us about this in 2nd Nephi 26:29

The Book of Mormon's purpose is and was to restore the pure, untransfigured Holy Word of God which originated by God and given mankind through Adam and was passed down through time to the bringing forth of the Holy Word of God in our day being complete and sufficient containing the pure precepts of God sufficient to enable mankind in our day to stand approved and sanctified at judgment day, nothing added or taken away.

The historical records teach us that prior to the fall of man, Eden was Gods Holy Church. It was there God taught Adam and established his precepts and gospel. God did not remove it from the earth, it was the wickedness of flesh which pushed it aside and in the back ground while sin and abominations warranted the many cleansings. In time and with sufficient men of righteousness, we are taught that a multitude of records will join the records of the Jews, or Bible and the Book of Mormon to verify these truths.

God, like a mother hen has attempted to gather mankind to his church many times throughout the lifetime of the human race, with one final attempt in our day with the bringing forth from the dust the Holy Word of God, given us in our day by men of flesh, the name of The Book of Mormon.

However, according to prophecies down through the ages those entrusted with his holy word initially bring it forth in its purity and it is used to re-establish the precepts of his Holy Church as before. Soon however, those entrusted, as shown by Jesus Christ to Moroni, men of flesh transfigure the Holy Word of God by altering its written word, and by offering the precepts of men of flesh instead of those offered by God in his Holy Word. Thus, the Holy Church of God, according to Moroni, becomes polluted as men of flesh take upon themselves the power of God, which no man can, and alter the precepts of God therein given which precepts then are in opposition to the truths within his Holy Word.

This is verified by the many great men who were shown our very day to include those in the Book of Mormon to include Christ himself as he warns all Gentiles of our day of many terrible sins or abominations of which we need to recognize, accept and repent of or suffer the coming cleansing as those presented before us.
